Notes: The paper had been folded in thirds; the bottom third has broken off, but the text is still legible when the two parts are set next to each other. Both parts have been marked on the dorse with the Union Theological Seminary library stamp and labeled with the number 30 in pencil in a modern hand. The dorse of the larger fragment has two notes about content, one modern and one dated 27 January 1739, as well as the mark "L.H. fol: 194=". The height mentioned above is the height of the two parts set next to each other, as in the image. The date is given in the second text as the ninth year of the pontificate of Clement XII. This date and the content correspond with UTS 037-07 and UTS 037-19, which indicate that the calendar year was 1738. The right edge appears to have been trimmed. There is an orange wax stain, perhaps from a seal, in the lower right corner. Latin

Text 1: 1 item

Title: Nomination for a benefice

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: The chapter of St. Martin's in Worms, Germany, requests that the pope appoint John Joseph Gartzweiler, cleric or priest "Leodiensis" (possibly Liège), to the canonate and prebend recently made vacant by the death of Peter Greuen.

Notes: The benefice was expected to return an annual income of 24 gold ducats de camera. Greuen appears in UTS 037-25 and UTS 037-26.

Text 2: 1 item

Title: Provision of a benefice

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: The request formulated in the first text is granted.

Notes: Dated in Rome at Santa Maria Maggiore on the third of the Kalends of January in the ninth year of the pontificate of Clement XII. Between the first text and the second text are the words "Fiat ut petitur L." A line in black ink has been drawn along the right side of the second text and labeled "Fiat L." A line in brown ink separates the end of the second text from the dating clause; this ink matches the ink used in the note by the second hand after the dating clause, as well as the ink used to create the dashes at the end of the first text. The second text does not give specifics but refers to the information given in full in the first text. This decision was formally enacted in the papal bulls UTS 037-07 and UTS 037-19.
